What's Trending

Federal News Network

U.S. Government Accelerates AI Readiness Infrastructure

Federal agencies have rolled out a new initiative to build a secure, sovereign AI infrastructure. The plan emphasizes deploying AI models on U.S. data centers and complying with local data protection standards to ensure operational control and governance.

Read More

ChannelE2E

Trend Micro and Google Cloud Expand Sovereign AI Security

Trend Micro deepens integration with Google Cloud to launch Sovereign and Private Cloud offerings certified under Assured Workloads. This enables regulated industries to adopt AI securely while retaining full data-residency control.

Read More

Entrepreneur Middle East

Saudi Arabia Launches AI Readiness Index for Government Transformation
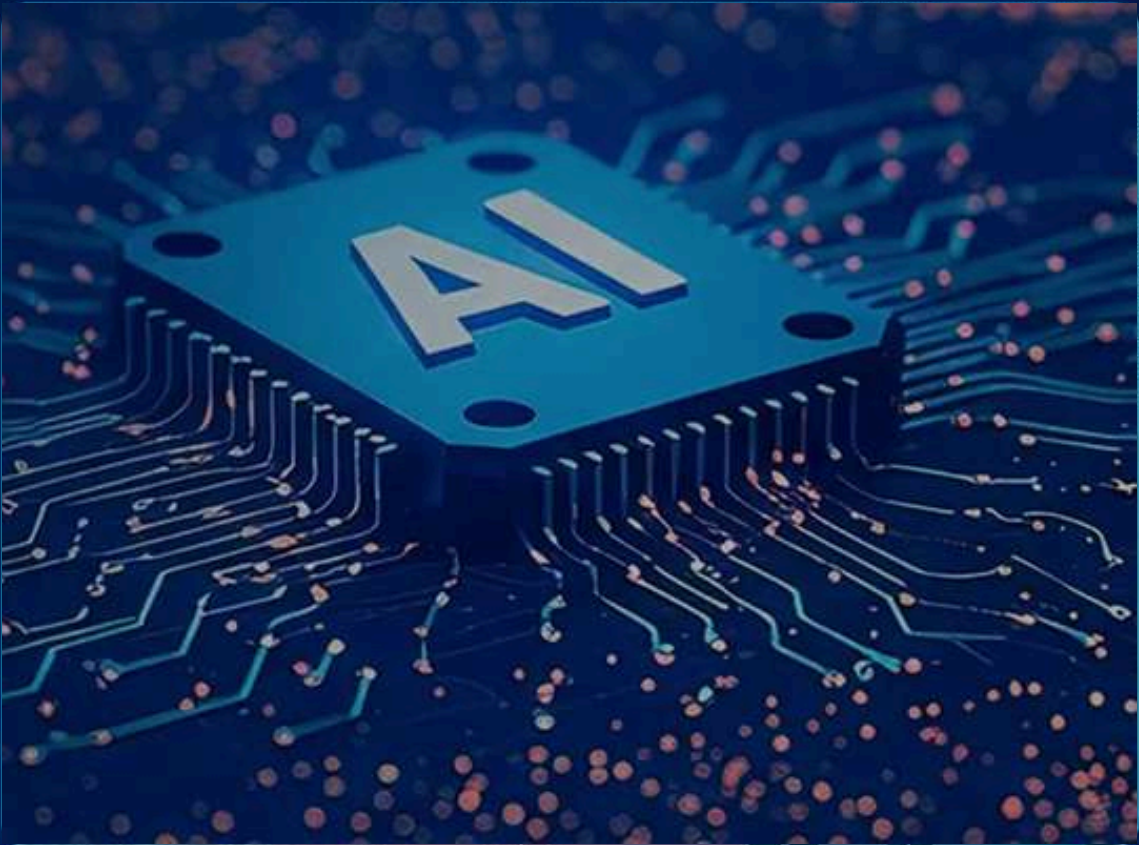

Saudi Arabia's Data & AI Authority introduced a nationwide AI Readiness Index to assess government entities' maturity levels. The framework supports sovereignty governance and informed planning for enterprise and public-sector AI readiness.

Read More

In the Spotlight

The Sovereign AI Paradox: Building Autonomy Without Breaking the Business

Read More

The Real AI Bottleneck Isn't Compute, It's Trustworthy Data

Read More